

Lectors

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

What is a Lector?

A lector is a lay person who is appointed to read the lesson that precedes the gospel. A lector may be appointed by the celebrant or serve on a parish rota of lectors. The role of lector is among the oldest of the liturgical lay ministries. We at St. Peter's use the rotation method for lectors.

You will receive a copy of your reading prior to your assigned Sunday. This gives you an opportunity to go over your reading and be prepared for Sunday morning.

On Sunday morning when it is time for you to read, you will come up to the lectern. Your reading is printed and located in the book on the lectern. A microphone is attached to the lectern so that you can be heard by all.

Please consider becoming a lector.

How to sign up.

There are sign up sheets on the display tables for your convenience. You may also email the church office and let us know or call the office.
